

BOWLING SWEEPSTAKES

There are two approved methods for sweepstakes available to bowling establishments:

RCW 9.46.0269(2)

- Players contribute to a pool.
- Rules must be posted.
- Players knock down marked pins in specified positions.
- Proprietor does not participate in proceeds from prize fund.
- Records are open to public inspection.

RCW 9.46.0345

- Players purchase tickets at no more than $1 each.
- Rules are posted.
- A drawing is held from the tickets purchased.
- Winner of drawing must bowl a strike.
- All money goes to the winner or to charity.
- Records are available for inspection by participants or law enforcement and Gambling Commission representatives.

DICE AND COIN CONTESTS
RCW 9.46.0305

Patrons of a food or beverage business may roll dice or flip coins to determine who will pay for:

- Food / beverage to be consumed on the premises; or
- Coin operated music on the premises.

The only unlicensed gambling activities authorized in a food / beverage establishment are dice / coin contests and sports pools. Minors are not allowed to engage in these gambling activities.

GAMBLING DEVICES
RCW 9.46.0241

(Slot machines, video pull tabs, and other electronic games.)

Gambling devices are illegal in the State of Washington. However, there is an exception for antique slot machines (RCW 9.46.235) which are classified as follows:

- It is at least 25 years old (antique); and
- It is not operated for gambling purposes.

Operation of an antique slot machine is legal only if it is played at no cost or with coins provided at no cost by the machine owner.

An operator may award a prize for high score only if an electronic amusement or video game requires skill instead of chance to win.

SEE “PROHIBITED GAMBLING ACTIVITES AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES” BROCHURE FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

PROMOTIONAL DRAWINGS
RCW 9.46.0355

Any drawing which requires a direct or indirect cost to enter is defined as a raffle. Raffles are limited to charitable or nonprofit organizations (see Raffle Rules). Full information on promotional contests of chance that may be conducted by commercial businesses is contained in another brochure.

SOCIAL CARD GAMES
RCW 9.46.0325

No card game in which wagers are placed may be allowed in a food or drink establishment without first obtaining the proper license from the Gambling Commission.

SPORTS POOLS
RCW 9.46.0335

Any person, association, or organization may conduct a sports pool without a license, but only when the outcome is dependent upon the score or scores of an athletic contest. Sports pools must be conducted in the following manner:

- Divide a piece of paper into 100 equal squares and offer these squares at no more than $1 each;
- Purchasers should sign their name on the square being purchased;
- Before the athletic contest begins, close the pool to additional purchases and assign a prospective score to each square by a random drawing;
- All money paid by entrants must be paid out to the person(s) holding the winning square(s);
- The person or organization may not operate more than one board on the same event; and
- At any time prior to the payment of a prize, the board must be made available for inspection by:
  - Anyone purchasing a chance;
  - Gambling Commission agents; or
  - Law enforcement representatives.
